CONFERENCE REPORTS.

Report on Books and Periodicals.

The committee on Books and Periodicals beg leave to submit the following :

We are highly gratified to note the fact that the Publishing House is practically out of debt, and is able to declare a dividend to the claimants specified in the discipline

The Church is now able to give its members better and and cheaper books than ever. We cannot speak too highly of the improvement made in both of these respects. The facilities for improvment in all that constitutes a publishing house will increase with increasing patronage. To accomplish this, we must induce our people to read. No Methodist can afford to be without "McTyeire's History of Methodism" or "Fitzgerald's Life of McFerrin," and no Methodist preacher can well afford to be without "Summer's Systematic Theology." Let these books be circulated and read over the Holston Conference and our people will be better Methodists, and our ministers better qualified for their holy work.

"The Quarterly Review" is much improved and we regard it as a desideratum. We commend it to all our preachers, and are of opinion that at its low price its subscription list should be doubled this year.

The "Christian Advocate" still grows, this is true both as to circulation and in the value of its contents, we cannot commend it too highly.

It is needless to mention the different Sunday School periodicals issued at the Publishing House and edited by our own diligent and indefatigable Cunningham. They are all worthy, and the fact that the Book Committee places in his hands the means of improvement, warrants us in the indulgence of the hope that they will soon greatly excel all others in this department of Christian labor. The Sunday School libraries are improved, in the elimination of whatever is improper from our Sunday School shelves and in securing more valuable books for the children.

Since our last annual session, "The Holston Methodist" has been sold and is now the property of Rev. Frank Richardson, David Sullins, John W. Smith and Maj. John W. Paulett. These brethren have made the purchase because they knew that this Conference needed an organ through which it could speak to the Church and the world. If the Conference so desire, they stand ready to turn over the paper to this body ; if it is the wish of the Conference the owners of the paper are willing to conduct it in the interest of Southern Methodism in the bounds of the Holston Conference. That the paper has improved and is a constantly growing medium of good your committee firmly believes ; that it will continue to prosper with these brethren at its head is our earnest conviction. Brethren, let us rally to its support and send in subscribers to the number of at least five thousand. It ought to have more. It will be our fault if it has less.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. Frank Richardson as editor and Rev. J. I. Cash as office editor.

We offer the following resolutions :

Resolved, That we will use our best efforts to circulate the books issued at our Publishing House and thus furnish wholesome libraries to our people.

SECOND—That as preachers, we recommend the "Review" as a Quarterly of rare ability, and with the facilities for improvement now in its reach we are hopeful that it will soon be the equal of any such publication in this broad land.

THIRD—That the "Christian Advocate" at Nashville is worthy of the increasing patronage it receives, and this Conference does hereby renew its former pledges to give it a cordial support.

FOURTH—That it is impossible to make our Sunday Schools interesting and profitable without the literature furnished by Dr. Cunningham and Bro. Lyons, and that, therefore, we will be diligent in the circulation of the same.

FIFTH—Our duty is to the "Holston Methodist," the recognized organ of this Conference. It is our child; this Conference is its parent. It has always been obedient and kind, is ready to spend and be spent for its nourishing mother, and we will fix the the minimum of our work for it at five thousand subscribers and will not be satisfied with less.

SIXTH—That the Conference appreciates the work being done for the cause of religion, education and temperance by the "Asheville Methodist," published at Asheville, N. C.

SEVENTH—That the "Holston Annual" is a necessity to the Holston Conference. Bro. Carden has done invaluable work for the Conference heretofore in the publication of this record of proceedings and we earnestly hope he will continue this work.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

K. C. ATKINS, Ch'm.

Report of Board of Education.

The Board of Education have had under consideration the state and character of all the institutions of learning under the care of the Conference, and would submit the following general statement concerning them:

Reports in the form of catalogues and written papers have been referred to them from Emory and Henry college, Martha Washington college, Sullin's college and Hiwassee College, but nothing specially from Wearville college, People's college or Asheville Female college.

The Board are gratified to learn from these sources and verbal representations of the officers of the different schools, that all of them are having a larger degree of prosperity with the opening of the present collegiate year than usual.

This is true of both our male and female colleges. With an increasing and more valuable patronage, have come some important material improvements,—notably in the case of the Centenary Female college at Cleveland, Tenn., Hiwassee college, Sullin's Female college at Bristol, Tenn., and Asheville Female college N. C.

EMORY AND HENRY COLLEGE, our oldest male college, is taking on the form and movements of new life.

Provision is there being made to meet the demand for thorough scientific instruction, both general and practical.

By the liberality of Dr. William Morrow, of Nashville, and others, some means have been procured for building a Science Hall, to be known as the "William Morrow Science Hall," in which provision will be made for a thorough course of instruction in general chemistry amply illustrated by experiments, and for a full laboratory course, wherein the students will be taught Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis, the Determination of Minerals, the Assaying of Ores and those practical manipulations and principles which will give a thorough preparation for Pharmacy and Medicine.

In addition, there will be a room devoted to Physical Manipulations and one set apart as a Cabinet of Minerals.

These equipments will supply a long felt want and help to place Emory and Henry college in the front rank of Educational Institutions, prepared to meet the demands of the times.

We congratulate the college on the election by its Joint Board, of R. W. Jones, L. L. D., and E. B. Craighead, the former to its presidency, made vacant by the resignation of Prof. G. W. Jordan, and the latter to the chair of Latin and French. Under the wise leadership of Dr. Jones, assisted by his able faculty, Emory and Henry college will realize to the Conference and the Church, more of its grand possibilities than heretofore.

MARTHA WASHINGTON COLLEGE, one of our oldest female colleges, located at Abingdon, Va., still maintains its high standard of excellency in all the departments of true culture for woman, under the judicious and efficient administration of Dr. D. S. Hearon. He is sustained by able and experienced teachers in the literary department, and in the music and art departments its facilities for complete and thorough instruction were never superior, and are seldom equaled in our best female schools.

It is a delightful christian home for the daughters of our land, and is worthy of the confidence and support of all our people.

SULLIN'S COLLEGE, located at Bristol, Tenn., is still under the presidency of Rev. L. L. Carlock, who has, we are informed, associated with him a number of good teachers for the current term. The school has opened very favorably, and has been enlarged and beautified by the erection of a new building, increasing its accommodations for boarding pupils, and adding much to its attractiveness and comfort. It is doing a good work for the city of Bristol and the community at large. We commend to our people.

CENTENARY FEMALE COLLEGE is among our youngest schools of female learning, and is domiciled in a magnificent new building, located in the city of Cleveland, Tenn. Under the presidency of Dr. David Sullins and his large staff of efficient teachers in all the departments, we learn it is achieving a phenomenal success. Situated in the lower part of our Conference and close to the city of Chattanooga, it occupies an important field and promises to be an able auxiliary to the cause of female education within our bounds and beyond.

Since the last session of our conference, through the liberality of Mr. James Harle, of Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. William Morrow, of Nashville, Tenn., an additional large and beautiful wing has been erected, worth from $12,000 to $15,000. To meet the growing disposition of young ladies to fit themselves for independent support, a Business Department has been organized and fully equipped under the direction of Charles Downing, a graduate of a Pennsylvania business college. Stenography, Type-writing, Telegraphy, and Book-keeping are taught in this department. We commend this department to young ladies who seek such tuition.

May the shadow of this school never grow less.

HIWASSEE COLLEGE, near Sweetwater, Tenn., is still under the efficient administration of President J. H. Brunner, D. D., and by report is doing a good work as a school of christian learning. Young men of limited means find there opportunities for acquiring a useful and solid education in morals and science. It has an enviable reputation in its past achievements, and deserves the confidence and support of our people. The trustees and friends have provided means for increasing its dormitories and otherwise improving its facilities. Its outlook for the future is encouraging and it is heartily commended to the public.

PEOPLE'S COLLEGE is, we learn verbally, entering upon a prosperous year, and doing a good work for christian education in that region of our Conference. It has supplied a long felt want of our Methodism at Pikeville, Tenn., and its vicinity, and we commend it to the people. We learn it has a good faculty.

WEAVERVILLE COLLEGE, with male and female departments, we hear, has been reorganized under a new regime, and with hope of greater prosperity.

The Board have received no report from the institution, and therefore can only speak of it in general terms. It occupies an important field, which should be diligently and vigorously cultivated.

ASHEVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE, located in the beautiful city of Asheville, N. C., has been domiciled in a new and elegant building, and under the presidency of James Atkins, D. D., is achieving a high degree of success. We also learn that the Institution has been completely equipped with the facilities for first-class work in female education. Though not under the care of our church, the college is conducted in the interest of our church and christian education. We commend it to our people.

DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOLS are in successful operation in many of our districts and deserve well of our people. It would be well to project a District High School wherever needed and practicable.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That Rev. James Atkins, D. D., be appointed to the presidency of Asheville Female college.

PRYOR INSTITUTE.

2. That, whereas the citizens of Jasper, Tenn., and vicinity, comprising Jackson Pryor, A. L. Spears, W. W. Anderson, A. K. Ally, W. E. Donaldson and others, have tendered as a donation to our church an elegant school property located in Jasper, valued at $30,000, and free of debt, known as "Pryor Institute," and designed by the founders for the education of males and females, this Conference accept the generous tender, and instruct the Presiding Elder and Pastor to see that the title is perfected and a deed for the same be made in due form to a board of Trustees to be confirmed by the Quarterly Conference of Jasper Circuit.

3. That T. R. Handy, J. H. Parrott, J. W. Smith, V. C. Allen, F. Alexander, J. H. Darr, A. D. Stewart, D. C. Horne and A. J. Frazier be appointed a board of visitors to said Institute.

4. That the Board recommend that the several District Conferences within the bounds of our Annual Conference inaugurate plans of their own, or similar to those of the Wytheville District, for raising a Loan Fund to aid by means of loans worthy young men who are preparing for the ministry.

J. S. KENNEDY, Chairman.

Report on Temperance.

Your Committee on Temperance would respectfully submit the following:

The Temperance question now agitates the whole country, as never before. Among men of sound temperance principles, much difference of opinion prevails as to what course is best to be pursued. But of one fact we are assured, and for which we should be profoundly grateful to God, namely, that there is "a sound in the going of the mulberry trees" against the awful dominion of Rum, and in favor of the hosts of God. And we believe that, whatever turn affairs may take, if we shall be true to Providential indications of duty, ultimate good will come to the land.

We recommend that the Church, as such, keep herself disentangled from all political alliances, and continue to labor, in her proper sphere, for the propagation of temperance doctrines and the exemplification of this Christian virtue. We also recommend that, as individual members of the Church, we should give to the situation that now obtains, much prayer and thought; and then, with unswerving devotion to temperance principles, let each man do what seemeth to him best.

While we would heartily recommend charity and patience between those who differ in their views of the present state of affairs, we would most emphatically deprecate the attitude of stolid indifference to this great and momentous question. Respectfully submitted.

D. S. HEARON, Chairman.

Report on Bible Cause.

The circulation of the Holy Scriptures, without note or comment, and in such form and style as shall be within reach of the poorest of our people, is a work worthy of the attention of the churches and ministers of this Conference.

While we rejoice in the active agency of the American Bible Society, which is organized for this work alone, our itinerant preachers cannot be excused from making some effort in this special work.

Unless the Protestant churches earnestly co-operate with this Society, the success of the Society's agents will be largely curtailed.

The American Bible Society depends on the churches both for contributions and the proper agents for its work.

The almost entire failure of the members of this conference to report collections for the American Bible Society seems to indicate that our church in the Holston Conference has taken no interest in the general distribution of the Scriptures among the poor people of our territory. but we are assured that the Bible Society's agents have taken collections in mass meetings, held under their direction. The ministers and members of our churches have contributed in these.

Your committee are fully impressed with the importance of Bible distribution by the hands of our preachers, especially in the country charges.

While they are doing all they can for books and papers which are issued by our own presses, we cannot afford to neglect the Bible, the word of God and the foundation of all religious reading.

We therefore recommend

1. That, wherever practicable, collections be taken in our churches for the Bible cause and the money be reported to the ensuing annual Conference.

2. That the preachers, traveling and local, be requested to take such interest in the work of circulating the Scriptures in their charges as they may be able, aiding the agents of the Bible Society wherever able. Respectfully submitted.

J. R. PAYNE, Chairman.

District Conference Records

Your committee on District Conference Records beg leave to submit the following report :

JEFFERSONVILLE DISTRICT.—Minutes fail to state what action was taken with the report on Spiritual State of the Church.

WYTHEVILLE DISTRICT.—Minutes fail to show who presided in the opening of the Conference. Some errors in orthography and punctuation. Record unsigned by the secretary.

MARION DISTRICT.—No criticism, save irregularity in plan of side-headings.

ABINGDON DISTRICT.—Minutes written with very little regard for punctuation.

JONESBORO DISTRICT.—The recording secretary seems to have written in haste and with a bad pen. There is nothing to show how many such Conferences have been held in the Jonesboro District. A reference to preceding minutes for a number of years past shows the same omission.

MORRISTOWN DISTRICT.—Minutes unsigned by the presiding officer.

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT.—No criticism.

ASHEVILLE DISTRICT.—This record deserves special mention for neatness of style and convenience of form, and is, in every respect, a model.

FRANKLIN DISTRICT.—Minutes unsigned by presiding officer.

Nearly all of the records fail to call attention to the reports of committees as appended. With the exception of these slight criticisms, all the minutes have been remarkably well kept. We take great pleasure in commending the work.

The records of Dnnoxville and Sequatchie Districts were not before the committee.

Board of Missions,

The following resolutions were adopted by the Board:

FIRST.—That the pastors are requested to assist the ladies in their missionary work by organizing and fostering societies, and that in their annual reports they will make mention of the amounts raised in their respective charges by the Women's Missionary Societies for foreign missions.

SECOND.—That each preacher in charge be requested to preach at least one missionary sermon at each of his appointments during the year as the discipline directs.

THIRD.—That each preacher be requested to hold a missionary mass meeting at one or more preaching places in each pastoral charge during the month of May, 1889, and J. Atkins, Jr., S. H. Hilliard and T. R. Handy were appointed a committee to prepare a suitable program for said mass meetings.

Spiritual State of the Church.

We have applied to the best sources accessible to us for such data as would enable us to make an intelligent statement in regard to the spiritual state of the Church within the bounds of the Conference. To reach the desired data we applied to the Presiding Elders of the respective Districts, and, after a careful analysis of the information procured, we feel amply warranted in making up an encouraging report. We call attention to some of the facts upon which we have reached this conclusion.

In summing up the statements of the Presiding Elders we find an approximate aggregate of the number of conversions, for the year, to be 7,253. In this aggregate the number of conversions within the Chattanooga District is not included, as we have no statement from the Presiding Elder who traveled that District. We think it is highly probable that if we had an accurate statement of all the conversions within the Conference during the past year, it would swell the aggregate to eight thousand. This result of the year's work is cause for devout gratitude, on the part of the Conference, to the great Head of the Church. And we cherish the conviction, that with the introduction into the Church, of this new heaven in these eight thousand new converts, warm in their first love, the Church can be neither dead nor dying, but that it has received thereby new life and has been quickened into new activities, which if faithfully cultivated, will develop into still grander and more glorious results during the incoming year.

We have the very gratifying testimony that the camp meetings of the past year, in the Conference, have been attended with the unction and power of the Holy Spirit, and that there is a growing sentiment pointing to a return of our people to our old camp meeting methods as means of grace in our work.

The testimony in regard to love feasts is uniform and to the effect that, during the past Conference year, they have been unusually well attended and have been characterized by much warmth and great spirituality. Indeed, they have been signally blest as sanctified means in infusing new life and devotion into many of our societies; and we recognize in them a great agency and power in bringing up our whole Church to a higher spiritual plane. These facts in regard to the spiritual character of our love feasts are pregnant with encouragement and inspiring to our hopes for the future of our Church.

While the testimony we have shows that our prayer and class meetings are not as well attended as we could wish, yet the same testimony indicates a perceptible improvement all along this line. And we cherish the hope, that with proper care and nursing, our people may be largely brought back to the use of these means of grace, so effective in the development of spiritual life and growth.

Your committee have procured some valuable information in regard to the observance of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. We desire to emphasize this paragraph of our report because we regard this sacrament and its observance as furnishing the most practical test of the faith of our people and as coming nearer revealing the heart of the Church than any other visible test we can apply. Assuming this position to be correct, the testimony we have is of the most encouraging character. Indeed, the evidence shows an increasing fidelity to this sacrament and a growing fealty to the Master who instituted it and commanded its observance, among our Methodist people. It is proper that we should state right here that the evidence we have was collected by Districts, and it shows that there has been a large increase of communicants around our sacramental altars over previous years. This is certainly a very encouraging view, based on facts, of the spiritual condition of our Methodist people in Holston. We have no doubt of the fact that this increasing observance of this holy rite of the Church—this moving forward of our people to her sacramental altars has had much to do with the spirit of revival which has resulted in so many conversions among us, and the baptismal unction which has rested upon our love feasts.

Allow us to say in conclusion, for the encouragement of the preachers as they go out to their new fields, that God's methods and spiritual agencies all harmonize, and when they become a unity with us the ark of the Lord will move up to the front, and many a poor doubting soul among us will spring forward to the front rank.

Respectfully submitted,

C. D. SMITH, Chairman.

Report of Sunday School Board.

Your Board beg leave to submit the following report:

The charges report: Schools, 694; officers and teachers, 4,405; scholars, 40,810; money expended, $5,617; for missions, $849,01; other objects, $413.94. The increase of schools over last year, 35; increase of scholars, 1,873.

The report of the Treasurer of the Children's Day fund shows a decrease, $55.73. We are sorry to note the fact that this work has been shamefully neg-

Elected by the brethren, who last year bound themselves in a promise to look after the same. Based, as is this work, on the same principle as all other mission work, and, the training of our children in this cause, forming the habit of giving, which is the promise of the future financial interests of the Church.

Resolved, therefore, That we observe the Children's Day, being careful to keep the law of the Church, which we promised to obey.

Resolved, That we urge our brethren, especially upon mission fields, to see that schools in their bounds are supplied with needed literature by the help of this fund. As men are known by the company they keep, so they may be, by the books they read. In view of this, we are glad to note that the Publishing House now has ready a most excellent library, prepared by Rev. J. A. Lyons, and admirably adapted to the pressing demands of our schools.

Resolved, That we show our appreciation of this great labor and service of our Holston brother by at once placing these libraries in our schools.

Resolved. That we request Brother Lyons to write a number of articles for the Holston Methodist on the importance of observing Children's Day, and the necessity of circulating our libraries and other literature.

Resolved, That in view of the shameful fact announced by Bishop Hargrove that only one out of ten of our adult members attend Sunday-school, and ignorance of the Word being the prime cause of the failures in our reports, we urge upon our members the keeping of their vows by supporting this institution of the Church.

To promote the above ends much depends upon the interests manifested by our Presiding Elders.

Resolved, therefore, That we urge upon our Presiding Elders the observance of the law which requires them to hold a Sunday-school Conference in each district every year.

The Board recommends the appointment of John Boring as Sunday-school Agent for the Holston Conference.

MEMOIRS.

REV. JOHN S. BOURNE.

John Sylvester Bourne, son of Curtis and Lucy Bourne, was born in Grayson County, Va., Dec. 26, 1856. He was converted at Ebenezer, Jan. 17, 1875, at a revival conducted by the eccentric and notable Bob Sheffey. His conversion was clear and powerful. He joined the M. E. Church, South, at once and went to work for the Master. He was licensed to exhort, March 18, 1876, at Lebanon by G. W. Miles, P. E., and S. D. Gains, P. C. At the same time, B. W. Fielder and S. K. Byrd, two members of this body, were also licensed to exhort. As an exhorter he had gifts, grace and usefulness. He was licensed to preach at Providence camp ground, Elk Creek circuit, Sept. 6, 1879, by John M. McTeer, P. E., and Rev. James Mahoney, P. C. In the local ranks for two years he aided the preacher in charge in supplying the people with the ministry of the word. He was recommended by his Quarterly Conference as a suitable person to be admitted on trial into the traveling connection, Sept. 17, 1881. As evidence of the high esteem in which he was held at home, they petitioned the Bishop to return him as their junior preacher for the ensuing year. At the session of the Holston Conference held at Wytheville, Va., Oct. 1881, he was received on trial and appointed junior preacher on Wytheville circuit with B. F. Nuckolls, B. W. S. Bishop, P. E. He served in this capacity for two years with a large degree of success. Of him Bro. Nuckolls says: For two years we worked side by side for the Master. He was the best help I have ever had in all departments of church work. He possessed a larger combination of talents for usefulness than any man I have ever known. At the close of his pastorate on the Wytheville circuit, he was admitted into full connection and ordained Deacon at Chattanooga, Oct. 14, 1883, by Bishop H. N. McTyeire. From this Conference he was appointed to the Jacksonville circuit, where he also remained two years. Here, with greater responsibilities upon him, he was even more abundant in labors which were eminently blessed in the salvation of souls and in building up the cause of Christ. From this charge he went to Emory and Henry College where he spent two years, preparing himself for greater usefulness in the ministry. During this period he was a close student and preached often to the delight of all. His past vacation was spent on Wytheville circuit, again is junior minister under Rev. J. H. Kennedy. At the close of his second collegiate year he took charge of Central Station where he labored successfully the remainder of the year. He was ordained Elder at Abingdon, Oct. 9, 1887, by Bishop McTyeire. He was re-appointed at this Conference to Central City station. He entered upon his year's work with a faith and zeal worthy of the cause little thinking it was his last on earth. Here, as everywhere he labored, souls were converted and all the interests of the church prospered. Of him as a preacher, his bosom friend from childhood, Rev. B. W. Fielder says: Those who have heard his voice in prayer, song and sermon can never forget it. The volume, the flexibility, the sweetness, the modulation, all made music for the soul. How much so when his soul was aflame with divine love and wooing others heavenward. He was a strong preacher, far above the average, but was not known as such beyond the counties of Southwest Virginia, where his great battles were fought. He could analyze closely but his unction covered the skeleton with flesh, and breathed the spirit upon the mechanical part, so that the message was a living reality. Homiletical monthlies would grace their columns by printing some of his sermons and at the same time edify believers and show sinners the way of life. I can refer the readers to the discourse in the dedication of the church at Camp Creek, Jacksonville circuit. There was always such a fine sense of the fitness of things for the time and place in the subject he chose. An unselfish soul as ever lived, he would have given his last half dollar to a beggar and then gone without his dinner. So free from guile and deceit, there was a bluntness of speech that even gave offense to those who failed to discern the pure motive of his great heart. The love he bore to his intimate friends amounted to warm affection which he was not afraid to express. And now that the warm hand and tender heart are hidden by the ashes, we rebuke every temptation for loving anything that cannot live forever. And how blessed the thought that his lofty traits of character are all refined by an almighty power and cannot sleep in the grave. John S. Bourne had the courage of his conviction. He was a moral hero, a true soldier of Christ. His bold defence of the cause of temperance and his fearless denunciation of the evils of intemperance did much towards turning the tide and saving his pastoral charge and country from the traffic in intoxicating liquors. For this he suffered persecution and was even insulted, but none of these things moved him. He loved God, country and home. Bro. Bourne was a model of neatness, an example worthy of imitation. With him cleanliness was next to godliness. Handsome in person, magnetic in manners, young and talented, pure and consecrated, he was loved while living and now sleeps in an honored grave. He died Sept. 5, 1888. For six long weeks he battled heroically for life, but alas, death conquered for a time. He suffered much but was resigned. He desired to live to do good but was ready and willing to go if the Master called. He spoke often of his love for the brethren and greatly desired to be with you all on this occasion; it may be he is. His last text was, "Be ye also ready, for at such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh." His last songs were, "We will wait till Jesus comes," and "Will the waters be chillo when I am called to die?" The last scripture quoted by him was, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you." His last prayer was for his people he loved and served so well and for the preacher who would succeed him in that field of labor. His last intelligently expressed wish was to see his mother. She came and he passed away. We buried him near the spot where he was converted by the side of his father. Peace to his memory, for he was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and faith, and much people were added unto the Lord.

DAVID RUSSELL SMITH.

This faithful minister of God, was born in Taylorsville, Johnson county, Tennessee, May 1st, 1835. At the age of three his parents settled in Lee county, Virginia. In 1854, Brother Smith was happily united in marriage with Sophia Wolfe, daughter of Peter and Agnes Wolfe. The marriage was a providential one; for she ever proved a true and devoted wife to the faithful itinerant, and she doubtless has the pleasant consciousness of having done all she could to assist her now glorified husband in his "work of faith and labor of love."

In 1856, the seeds of divine truth which had fallen in his honest heart germinated, and there sprang up the plantlet of a new life; destined under the influences of a Godly education, and a virtuous life, to develop into a tree of righteousness with boughs weighted with the golden fruitage of noble and consistent actions. He entered at once upon the race for eternal life, by connecting himself with the M. E. Church, South, as a branch of the great church of Christ Jesus, and he was licensed to preach in 1859. He remained in the ranks of the local ministry until the meeting of the annual conference in the fall of 1868, when he, with L. L. H. Carlock, D. Atkins and Wm. B. Mitchell was admitted on trial in the traveling connection.

In 1870, he was admitted into full membership in the Holston conference. In this connection he labored faithfully, serving various charges with acceptability and success, until the conference of 1885, when, owing to physical inability, the conference, at his own request granted him a location. At the next meeting of the conference, in 1886, he was re admitted and placed on the supernumerary list, which relation he sustained until January the 9th, 1888, when the Supreme Master called him from the labor of this life to enjoy the living refreshments served by God, in the "home of the soul." At that call, "a mortal arrow pierced his heart; he fell, but felt no fear."

"Tranquil amid alarms,
It found him on the field,
A veteran slumbering on his arms,
Beneath the red cross shield."

And then the disembodied spirit of our brother, and co-laborer, doubtless rode away in the "chariot of God," to the paradise of eternal happiness.

He was a man of deep piety, and abiding faith, shadowing forth in bold proportions the living principles of the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ.

He was wholly consecrated to his work as a minister of the Gospel. Always obedient to the call of the chief pastors, earnestly and zealously toiling in such fields of labor as they, in their Godly judgment assigned to him. Honesty was the foundation upon which he reared the superstructure of his moral character, and being strictly temperate, and truthful in all his dealings with humanity, he naturally became the highest exponent of the Gospel of Christ,—"a living epistle known and read of all men," so far as he was known.

He was only six days passing "through the valley of the shadow of death"—Jordan was deep where he crossed, but not wide. A terrific storm of physical suffering and human agony swept through the valley of the Jordan of death, when he entered the chilly waves; but He who calms the raging sea, said: "Peace, be still!" and "there was a great calm;" then the man of God folded his arms across his breast, and gently closed his eyes in death to open them upon the transcendent glories of the spiritual world.

"Servant of God, well done,
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."
